

WIDER IN GRASP OF THE LAW

New York Cashier Who Stole
$500,000

ARRESTED AND LOCKED UP

He Will Plead Guilty to the Charge Against Him, According to His Attorney—Could Not Get Bail.

New York, July 30.—A frail little man with grey cheeks and hollow eyes, in whose manner and presence there was nothing to suggest that single handed he had lifted $500,000 in bonds and stocks from the strong box of a bank, was arrested yesterday afternoon in a downtown restaurant, not five minutes walk from the bank he had robbed. He was Erwin Wider, cashier of the Russo-Chinese bank. In the court of general sessions his lawyer, Leon Ginsberg, said that he would plead guilty and he was committed to the toms in default of $25,000 bail.

Ginsberg pleaded with Judge Warren Foster for a lower amount. The sum asked, he said, was prohibitive, whereas, $10,000 might be obtained.

"And I want to add," he said, "that none of this money is in my client's possession. It was swallowed up in Wall street speculation."

The plea was refused, the district attorney commenting: "I do not see that there is any need of bail. This entire case can be ended in a couple of days."

As soon as Wider was arrested, the grand jury landed upon an indictment against him, charging specifically that he stole three certificates of Baltimore and Ohio stock and disposed of them through the brokerage house of Dick Brothers on May 22, last. The particulars indicate that the theft had been going on for weeks and possibly months, before it was discovered.

How such a state of affairs could have existed is difficult to understand, for at least three other officers of the bank had access to the safety deposit box and the box itself was brought daily to the offices of the bank. Brokers with whom Wider traded have said that he called up from the bank to give them orders over the telephone.

Detectives trailed Wider's wife yesterday to the restaurant where her husband was arrested. Wider was pitifully shaken and broken. His lawyer said he was a sick man and that he would be committed to the toms to be

HERD OF 20,000 WALRUS.

Encountered by California Schooner in Behring Strait.

Seattle, Wash., July 30.—The gasoline trading schooner Helen Johnson, owned and navigated by Louis Lane, son of Charles D. Lane, the California millionaire, encountered on June 5, a herd of 20,000 walrus swimming in the sea near Diomed Islands in Behring Strait. The animals covered an area of several acres of water, and the schooner, after trying to sail through the herd, drew to one side. A photographer was on the Johnson and the incident was recorded scientifically. This is said to be the largest herd ever seen and seems to discredit reports of the impending extinction of walrus through hunting for its ivory tusks.

COUNTY FUNDS TAKEN.

O. S. Lawrence, Former Treasurer, Is Held.

Malone, N. Y., July 30.—O. S. Lawrence, former county treasurer of Franklin county, was arrested Thursday, charged with misappropriating funds belonging to the county. Bail of $10,000 was furnished. After the death of Frank L. Carpenter, who assumed the office of county treasurer on January 1, the board of supervisors made an examination of the treasurer's books and discovered a considerable shortage. The examination is not yet completed, but Lawrence has already made restitution of $14,000.

Joe Gans Dying.

Prescott, Ariz., July 30.—Joe Gans, the former lightweight champion, who is a victim of the "white plague," will live only about two weeks more, according to a statement by his physicians.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Ines Lewis, Barre, Maine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

FORM CURRENCY ASSOCIATION.

New York Bankers Organize Under National Law.

New York, July 30.—The National Currency association of the city of New York, was regularly organized yesterday at a meeting held at the clearing house and was attended by representatives of twenty-five national banks. The association was formed in conformity with the act of Congress known as the Aldrich-Vreeland act providing for issue of additional circulation and in response to the recent suggestion by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeigh as to the desirability of forming such associations in the country's financial centers.

A. B. Hepburn, president of the Chase National bank, was elected president of the new association; Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City bank, was elected vice-president; Alexander Gilbert, president of the Market and Fulton National bank, was elected secretary.

First National bank; R. P. Delafeld, president of the Park National bank; William H. Porter, president of the Chemical National bank, and William Woodward of the Hanover National bank. The meeting was attended by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury A. Platt Andrew, who represented Secretary MacVeigh. The bylaws drawn up some time ago were ratified without discussion. No date was set for the next meeting of the association, which, however, holds itself ready to answer the call of the secretary of the treasury.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE IN PERIL.

Electric Current Eats Heart Out of the Steel Span.

New York, July 30.—That the Brooklyn bridge is in peril was the declaration made Thursday by Fire Chief Croker after he had investigated the blaze that tied up traffic on the structure Wednesday. He found that electric current from a trolley feed wire had eaten 14 inches into a span of steel and had cut to its heart as if it had been a piece of butter.

"New things develop in fires almost every day," said the chief, "and this seems to be a question for the electrical engineers to take up at once and find a solution."

AUTO HITS BABY CART.

Child Killed When Frightened Nurse Stops in Machine's Path.

New York, July 30.—While a frightened nursemaid hesitated in the middle of the street, a 60-horsepower automobile, driven by William B. Walker, the president of the American Thermos Bottle company, struck a baby carriage containing Elizabeth Guida, 17 months old, in Eighth avenue Thursday night, knocked the child to the street and ran over its body.

The baby died as it was being taken to a hospital. Mr. Walker was arrested, but was released when it was ascertained he was not to blame.

An Emphatic Statement by Oyster Bay
Man—No Other Course Just Now

Is Possible, It Is Pointed Out.

Chicago, July 30.—United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana was an early caller yesterday at Theodore Roosevelt's offices. The colonel evidently was expecting the Indiana senator.

Colonel Roosevelt after his talk with Senator Beveridge announced that his Indiana speech for Senator Beveridge would be delivered in Indianapolis on October 12.

William Stanton of Bayonne, N. J., a brother of Speaker Philip A. Stanton, of the assembly of California, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in that state, called yesterday.

Gifford Pinchot is supporting Stanton's insurgent opponent in California. Colonel Roosevelt made the following statement in the matter:

"I have told Mr. Stanton that I would take no part in the contest for the nomination of governor, just as I have refused to take part in all similar contests."

"No man representing me has any authorization to speak for me in this matter or in any similar matter concerning a contest for a nomination and I wish to state with all possible emphasis that I am not taking part one way or the other in this or any similar contest for a nomination."

"I would like to add that it ought to be unnecessary for me to repeat this statement, which I have made again and again, for if I should take part in any one such contest I would be expected to take part in literally hundreds."

(Signed)

"Theodore Roosevelt."

United States Senator William Warner of Missouri and Frank B. Keating of St. Paul were among the colonel's callers.

COMPROMISE ON LORDS.

Negotiations Advance, Asquith An

the two dominant parties in the differences of the house of lords and the house of commons already have succeeded in bridging several gulfs that have separated them, and a statement made by Premier Asquith in the lower chamber yesterday afternoon indicates that the outlook for a compromise is more hopeful than had been anticipated. Unless a rupture comes during the recess little further of an official character is likely to be heard regarding the negotiations until parliament re-assembles on Nov. 14.

Mr. Asquith, after stating that the conferees in the course of twelve meetings had surveyed the field of controversy carefully, said: "The result is that our discussions made such progress—although we have not so far reached an agreement—as to render it in the opinion of all of us not only desirable but necessary that they should continue. In fact, I may go further. We would think it wrong at this stage to break them off." The premier added that if further deliberation showed no prospect of an agreement that could be announced in parliament at the present session, the conference would be closed.

The Daily Express yesterday said that Prime Minister Asquith will be able to announce in the house of commons that the conference between the government and the opposition, which has been meeting for several weeks, has reached an agreement. It says:

"We believe the compromise will be effected along lines undreamed of by the average man. It would be premature to say that the settlement in view is one which includes not only Ireland's relation with England but those of all the colonies with the mother country." The newspaper shows the bearing which the settlement of the Irish question would have on Anglo-American relations, pointing out the strength of Irish political influence in the United States.

EXPLOSION LAID TO BOMB.

Plant of Chicago Firm Wrecked—Had Trouble with Men.

Chicago, July 30.—An explosion, which was heard for miles, occurred on Thursday night at Twenty-first and Canal streets, partly wrecking the front of the plant of the Louis Hutt Box company, breaking hundreds of windows in the neighborhood and causing terror to scores of families. Peter Wilhelm, a watchman at the Hutt plant, narrowly escaped. A conduit cover across the street from the building was blown into a dozen pieces, and this gave rise to the belief that the explosion was due to a bomb.

Recently the Cosmopolitan Electric company has been having trouble with its linemen, it is said. Ernest J. Magerstadt, city collector, who is president of the Louis Hutt company, was one of those who attributed the damage to a labor bomb.

The damage amount to about $10,000.

FEARED POLICE CUPIDITY.

So Cries Swallowed All His Money.

Three Dimes.

Chicago, July 30.—Declaring that the police would never get any of his money, Frank Cries Thursday night swallowed three dimes while riding in a patrol wagon to a hospital. It was all he had.

On arriving at the hospital the officers forgot for the moment that Cries was suffering with a broken leg and called for Doctor Schaubel and a stomach pump. Much to his disgust, the heroic remedy was applied to Cries and soon there were three dimes on the operating table and the police did get possession of them after all.

Before submitting to arrest, Cries fired several shots at Patrolman William Smith at Spaulding and Pierce streets and was chased through the streets for several blocks, all of the time leading a Shetland pony, which it is alleged he had stolen.

It was while he was trying to escape that Cries tripped and broke his leg.

RUMBLINGS IN SPAIN

Rumor Spreads of Carlist Rebellion

THE NEWS FOLLOWS

The Vatican's Ultimatum—Don Jaime,

the Pretender, Is Ready—Soon

May Be Necessary to Rally

Followers, He Says.

Madrid, July 30.—Ominous reports are received following the publication of the news that a rupture between the Spanish government and the Vatican appears imminent.

At San Sebastian, Don Jaime, the pretender, has issued a manifesto, in which he says: "I think the day is not far distant when my followers must rally to our flag. I will lead the battle." Don Jaime congratulates his followers on their loyalty to the pope.

It is expected that Premier Canalejas will ask King Alfonso to set the stamp of his majesty's approval upon the course that the premier has adopted.

The Vatican has declared that the negotiations looking to a revision of the concordat cannot be continued until the imperial decree permitting non-Catholic societies to display the insignia of public worship has been withdrawn. Canalejas has responded that he cannot cancel the program which the government has announced. In some quarters it is believed that the holy see counts upon the fall of the government. Canalejas, however, is said to have had the assurance of the king's support at the time he determined upon his plan for religious reforms.

The general situation is complicated by the unrest among the miners in the Catalan provinces and the occasional clashes between Catholic and non-Catholic elements throughout the country.

Madrid, July 30.—El Mando, discussing the threatened break between the Spanish government and the Vatican over the refusal of Premier Canalejas to rescind the imperial decree which permits non-Catholic societies to display the insignia of public worship, says: "The holy see has no reason to feel offended. It is heading deliberately toward a rupture, which will precipitate the opening of a rapid and energetic anti-clerical campaign."
